Property details

Two bedroom apartment with parking and balcony, near to the Waterfront

Constructed in the year 2000, this meticulously cared for apartment, situated on the second floor, boasts two spacious double bedrooms, a well-appointed bathroom, a welcoming living room with a charming balcony, a integrated kitchen, and a separate utility room. The property comes complete with a separate external store room and a secure parking space, ensuring both storage and peace of mind.

The property is available with no onward chain, providing a smooth transition for the new owner. Full vacant possession is assured. Please note that we are the exclusive agent handling this sale, which is facilitated through a share transfer purchase.

The quarterly service charge for this property is £851.90 which covers the apartment, parking space and store.

The designated parking space for this apartment is number 1.
