Property details

Exceptional and spacious family town house.

Situated in Belmont Road on the edge of the town centre, this fine 19th century family house offers spacious accommodation for the growing family and has been maintained in good order throughout.

With a sunny south facing courtyard, the accommodation includes a separate sitting room and family dining room, 4 double bedrooms and a box room, which offers the opportunity to create a second bathroom. While the property has no parking, it is close to Minden Place car park and is only minutes' walk from wherever you are heading for in the town.
