Property details

Detached four bed family home with beautiful south facing garden, parking and double garage.

M & Co. are proud to be sole selling agents of this beautifully presented family home. Situated in the popular parish of St. Martin, with rural views, enclosed sunny garden and plenty of parking.

This property welcomes you in with an entrance hallway flooded with natural light. An eat-in kitchen complete with high-end appliances, pink granite work tops and french double doors which lead to the garden making it perfect for alfresco dining and entertaining. The main living room has plenty of space for the whole family, again this room has french doors leading out to garden. The second reception room would make a good size home office or snug. Completing the downstairs there is a WC, utility room and large double garage, half of which is currently being used as additional storage.

Upstairs, this family home has 3 generous double bedrooms and a large single bedroom, the primary bedroom benefiting from having a large en-suite shower room. The rest are serviced by the house bathroom.

Externally there a very peaceful and private south facing garden, plenty of parking and a large double garage.

Viewings come highly recommend as this is not one to miss!

Mains water and drains. Oil fired central heating. Freehold
