Property details

Detached and secluded 4 bedroom, rural home with workshops, garages and 18 verges of land.

We are delighted to present to market this private and secluded rural home. Located just a short drive from La Mare wine estate in the well sought after parish of St Mary's. Chez Nous, is a spacious home surrounded by agricultural land, garage's/workshops and beautiful gardens, in need of refurbishment the property provides endless opportunities for its new owners. The main residence offers an eat-in kitchen with separate sitting/dining room, living room leading into the conservatory overlooking the well maintained gardens, utility and W.C. The first floor provides four good size double bedrooms and house bathroom.

Externally there is a separate study, separate games room and bathroom, three garages/workshops and site area where a previous store once was before the storm. The property owns 18 verges of land which is currently let for potato farming.

Potential for development of many uses, multi-generation living or home with income subject to planning.

Sold with vacant possession and no onward chain. Viewings by appointment only.

Services:

Oil, electric no mains gas. Septic tank and soakaway.
