Property details

This beautiful two-generation period property is quietly situated above La Pouquelaye, benefiting from elevated sea views across St. Helier's skyline, yet only a short stroll to the centre of town and local amenities.

The property has been extensively modernised and you are welcomed in with a grand entrance hallway with your eyes drawn to the original mahogany staircase highlighted by a modern striped stair runner inviting you upstairs. Off the hall way is the stunning new kitchen creating the heart of the home and providing an inviting open plan space for all the family to gather. The elegant sitting room has been stylishly decorated and features a wood burning stove for cosy evenings in. Upstairs, the main house briefly comprises; 4 generous double bedrooms, all serviced by one en-suite bathroom and one house bathroom, laundry room and office space. The original features and large period windows create beautiful bright, airy spaces with plentiful natural light.

On the lower ground floor there is a spacious self contained 2 bedroom 1 bathroom flat. Previously used for holiday lets, the flat has been excellently maintained and provides fantastic income for the home or a great private space for extended family to visit or stay.

Externally the house benefits from an enclosed private garden, parking for 5 cars and a large insulated double garage with a log burning fireplace to the rear creating a wonderful cosy den or workspace, as a surprise added bonus.

Mains water and drains. Oil fired central heating. New fibre glass roofs over the dormer windows and the roof has been updated with new leading. Freehold
