Property details

This elegant Victorian country house occupies an elevated position facing west above Bonne Nuit Bay surrounded by its own land and bordering countryside on all aspects.

This detached and totally private family home was extended approximately 10 years ago to provide a spacious two bedroom, single storey guest cottage creating the perfect two generation home being on one level or a great stepping stone for an older child before flying the nest. We await clarification on the specific status of the cottage from the Planning department.

The main house has been well maintained however some modernising and updating would now be beneficial in order to reach its full potential allowing the new owner to style and decorate to their own taste. Scope exists to create a fabulous kitchen-family room with dual aspect whilst still retaining two additional reception rooms. The first floor provides the master bedroom with en-suite shower room and two further double bedrooms, both serviced by the house bathroom. A large attic room with staircase access is currently used as a hobby room, but could also be converted to additional children's rooms or a great playroom if desired.

A formal garden sits to the front of the property facing west and catching the sun all day and capturing the last of the evening sunset, whilst an elevated garden and orchard and field wrap around the rear, sheltering the house and blending with the private woodland beyond.

The driveway approach has secure electric gates with provision for numerous cars and beyond a stylish green oak double garage, store and gardeners toilet offers great storage and somewhere to potter.

Viewings are essential as very little of the property can be seen from the road.

Mains water and septic tank and soakaway drainage. Listed Building Grade 3. Freehold.
