Property details

Newly renovated, two bedroom cottage with patio garden.

The Lodge, is a delightful modern cottage, tucked away on a quiet private lane just on the outskirts of town. This charming cottage, presents itself in walk-in condition throughout. The entrance provides three large storage cupboards, one being utilised as a gaming/computer hub, leading out to the low maintenance patio garden. The spacious lounge provides the perfect space for entertaining and dining alike. There is a separate modern kitchen with fully integrated appliances and additional space for dining. The house shower room completes the lower level of this cottage. To the first floor, there are two double bedrooms, the Master with built in storage and access to the attic space for additional storage.

All mains excluding gas. Newly fitted electric heating system and fully double glazed. Sold with vacant possession.

Regret no parking included, residents parking scheme and car parks nearby.
